The Earl of Poor Eating

Dogma

A demon who possessed Satoru for the sake of tasting the "Soul of a True Chef." He decided to mold Satoru from a talentless individual into a gourmet chef. At first visible only to Satoru, he eventually materializes as a guest professor at Shokusen.

Dogma, the chef from Hell, crashes into the life of ordinary junior high student Moriya Satoru, who'd never even held a kitchen knife before. Dogma's goal: to obtain the ultimate delicacy, the "Soul of a True Chef." To fulfill his destiny of landing on Dogma's dinner plate, Satoru enrolls in the Culinary Department of Shokusen, heralded as the Tokyo University of Food. When Yuri, Dean of the Applied Biological Sciences Department, returns to the school, she declares cuisine "unnecessary." Dogma materializes as a Shokusen guest professor to refute her through a cooking competition encompassing the five senses. The third son of the Utsurogi group, Utsurogi Monge, faces lone wolf and genius Kamoi Mitsuru in a street vendor cook-off. Satoru challenges the Service Department's Ace, Mizu Kyousuke, in a clash between garcons! These series of challenges push Satoru closer to becoming a delectable gourmet chef!

Hmm?

Fine. I'll allow you to take a break until final exams are over.
After all, I don't want you returning to that pigpen.
Pigpen? You mean my house!

It's pathetic that you'd complain about so little.

THIS'LL HELP!
This is a practice book on math, your weakest subject.
If you solve the problems in the book, you'll be able to learn 1 day's worth of information in just 10 minutes.

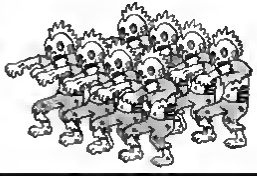
Problem 1

The only weapon Satoru-kun has is a wooden stick.

Calculate the maximum amount of time he must spend defeating each creature.

There are 2 minutes until he explodes.

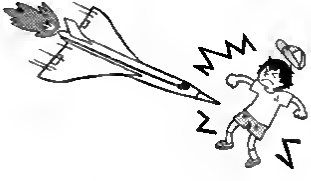
Satoru-kun must kill 1 gargoyle and 8 zombies.



Problem 2

Calculate the instantaneous force on his private regions

Satoru-kun is moving at 286 km/h when he collides with a Concorde moving at 360 km/h



Problem 3

Satoru-kun's height is 158 cm and weight is 46 kg

The total amount of blood spilled at this time is 730 ml

How many minutes does Satoru-kun have until he dies?

10 minutes have passed since Satoru-kun entered the Iron Maiden

There are only 10 questions.
Every time you answer incorrectly, you'll get closer to becoming "Satoru-kun."
YOU MEAN LITERALLY?
